

House Resolution No. 2597

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens or distinguished themselves through significant personal achievement; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Josh Jennings and Landon Anderson from Wright City Academy, who have been chosen for a Missouri Service Learning Advisory Council Inspire by Example youth group award in light of the many hours they have dedicated to service-learning projects; and

Whereas, Josh Jennings and Landon Anderson received the Inspire by Example service-learning award during a special ceremony that took place at the State Capitol on April 30, 2008; and

Whereas, Josh Jennings and Landon Anderson developed the idea of rebuilding a car and donating it to a local family in need; and

Whereas, Josh Jennings and Landon Anderson planned the project, donating their time after school and on the weekends to see it through to completion; and

Whereas, Josh Jennings and Landon Anderson, with the assistance and support of Wright City Academy Administrator Richard Lagemann, Country Side Salvage and Auto Sales, and three other students, carried out the needed body and engine repairs on a donated low-mileage, late-model car; and

Whereas, Josh Jennings and Landon Anderson consulted the local Parents as Teachers organization to identify an appropriate family with a genuine need for the car; and

Whereas, Josh Jennings and Landon Anderson truly illustrate the Service Learning cycle of preparation/ action/ reflection/ celebration:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to applaud the selection of the Josh Jennings and Landon Anderson for an Inspire by Example service-learning award from the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Josh Jennings and Landon Anderson.
